Storrow Earns ‘Spirit of Excellence’

Worthington, Ohio – The June 2011 Spirit of Excellence winner is Rochelle Storrow, charge nurse at Lutheran Village of Ashland (LVA). Storrow received the award for maintaining a consistently high level of performance and a positive attitude on the job. Lutheran Social Services (LSS) presents this award monthly to staff members.

Storrow has been with LSS for 3 ½ years and is responsible for administering nursing service at LVA as well as admitting, transferring and discharging residents as required. She also acts as the resident advocate and assumes the authority, responsibility and accountability for the quantity and quality of the resident care given on assigned shifts.

“Rochelle is a true asset to the LVA facility and my team,” said ShaNa Benner, wellness manager for LVA. “During her time with us, she has not only maintained perfect attendance, but also has been incredibly valuable by filling in for other nurses who needed to be out on FMLA for long periods of time. She is very hands-on and has excellent follow through and values the input from her resident assistants.

Employees may be nominated for the Spirit of Excellence Award by supervisors, coworkers, residents, clients or family members. The award winner is selected at a quarterly LSS Leadership Team meeting.

Lutheran Social Services of Central Ohio serves thousands of people each day in central, southern and northern Ohio by focusing on the core societal issues of hunger, housing, healing and hope. LSS provides food pantries, homeless shelters, senior living, affordable housing communities and other programs and services that uplift families and strengthen communities. LSS is affiliated with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, recognized by the Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod and a charter member of Lutheran Services in America.
