Souper Bowl Sunday February 5, 2012

Are the statements below true or false? See how you score.

- An estimated 15,000 tons of snack chips will be eaten during the Super Bowl
- 12.2 million pounds of guacamole will be consumed on Super Bowl Sunday
- Four million non-elderly low-income families said they had used a food pantry at least once during the past year.
- One in four people receiving assistance from a food pantry is a child.
- LSS Food Pantries are experiencing a 23% increase in people served this year.

If you guessed True to each of these, you're correct. That's why Lutheran Social Services is asking you to join us this year for Souper Bowl Sunday. All money raised during Souper Bowl Sunday will directly benefit our food pantries in Columbus, Lancaster and Caldwell, Ohio as well as our mobile food pantry.

For more information on how you can become involved, contact Brad Draper, LSS Director of Food Pantry Services at (614) 443-5130 or go to our website at www.lssco.org.
